

Let's Visit an Aquarium Store

edHelper.com

Let's Visit an Aquarium Store

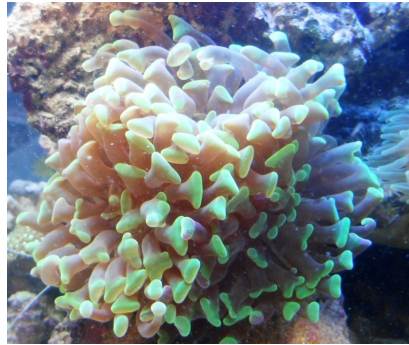

Other fish food is kept on the shelves. Other aquarium supplies are there, too.

Let's Visit an Aquarium Store

Story Words

ever such someday
colorful pet center
hide
store

behind should other also empty
even nose

Story Words

degrees
salt-water
least shrimp
stingrays comes goldfish
tang

cichlids
tank
supplies
seaweed
plants
saltwater
others

Level: 6

Word Count: 237

Copyright © 2013 by edHelper

All rights reserved.

Let's Visit an Aquarium Store

This round thing is called a tiger conch. Roarrrrr!

Have you ever had a pet goldfish? Some people like fancier fish. These people might have a saltwater aquarium.

2

Coral is also at the fish store. It comes in many colors.

10

Let's Visit an Aquarium Store

One fish store has many things for saltwater fish tanks. This store even has a fish on its door.

3

Let's Visit an Aquarium Store

Fish like to hide behind the colorful coral. They also like green seaweed.

11

Let's Visit an Aquarium Store

This cute fellow is called a yellow tang. He has a funny nose. His orange friends are called cichlids. Cichlids like to have friends in the tank with them.

4

Let's Visit an Aquarium Store

Do you think this clown fish should be called Nemo?

12

This store has many fish tanks. Some of the tanks are empty. Others have fish and coral in them.

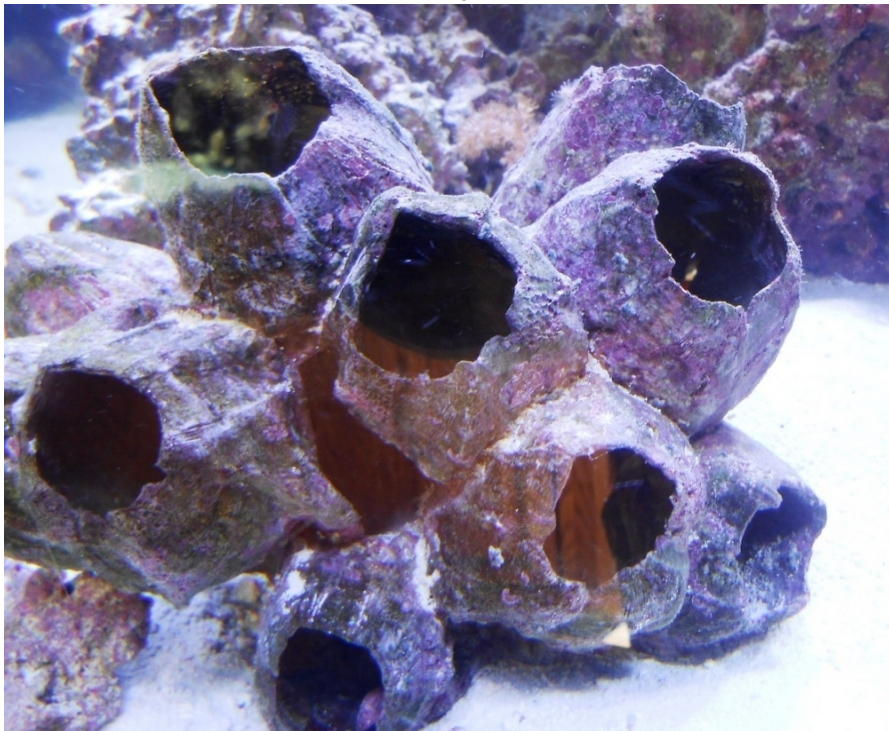

This fish has blue lips, but she is not cold. Most salt-water tanks are at least 77 degrees.

This big tub is in the center of the store. Someday, this tank will have stingrays swimming around in it, but not yet.

6

Barnacles are also at this store. Have you ever seen such big barnacles before? There are many unusual plants and animals at the aquarium store.

14

This store has a freezer of food for saltwater fish. This food is yummy for fish but probably not for people. Would you like to eat brine shrimp?